Doing What Matters

An active member of the Liberal Party since the age of 19,
Amanda is no stranger to politics.

Daughter to a plumber and a shop assistant, she's no stranger to hard work either.
After studying arts and law at Sydney University on scholarship, Amanda worked for Minter Ellison before moving on to be associate to Justice Ian Callinan AC QC on the High Court of Australia and Justice Philip McMurdo on the Supreme Court of Queensland's commercial list.

Based in Brisbane, Amanda's favourite part of the job is talking to you:
from Coolangatta to Cairns, Bundaberg to Birdsville.

Cost : $15
